

My quality of life--especially at meal-time--has improved since being on the no-call list. If I have done business with a company, they do not need to keep calling me for up to 18 more months! I'll know where to find them if I need their services/product again! There are other ways to solicit business besides calling customers at random! I have a right to not be harrassed!! Thank you!!